

MARRIED AND/OR PREGNANT STUDENTS

Students who marry or become pregnant while enrolled in school may continue attendance on the same basis as other students. Upon the incidence of marriage or pregnancy, the student will be brought into conference by the principal, pregnancy coordinator or other staff designated by the principal to discuss responsibilities of the student and his/her change of status. The student shall be told that he or she is to refrain from discussing personal and private affairs with other students. Pregnant students may attend the centralized program where specialized instruction is provided.
