About The Scholarships

NAFEPA offers three different scholarships: (1) Stanley J. McFarland, (2) John A. Pfaff, and (3) Iva McCants. The NAFEPA Board of Directors established these awards in honor of these individuals to recognize outstanding contributions to the goals of the NAFEPA Organization and the students the organization represents. Each individual has shown and provided exemplary leadership and dedication to NAFEPA.

- Each of the three scholarship awards is $2,500.

Stanley J. McFarland (deceased) served as the executive director of NAFEPA from 1985 to 2000. Prior to his association with NAFEPA, he was with the National Education Association where he participated in the development of the cabinet position of the Department of Education. Mr. McFarland led NAFEPA towards the establishment of an association designed to assist federal program administrators in their quest to implement federal education programs. His leadership created a strong working relationship with the U.S. Department of Education that continues to this day. Procedures were also developed for local practitioners to communicate with members of Congress as they worked to reauthorize existing laws or establish new federal legislation.

John A. Pfaff has served NAFEPA as secretary, vice president and two terms as president. Under his leadership, NAFEPA underwent a restructuring that enabled the organization to function independently under the direct authority of elected officers. Mr. Pfaff is a retired local practitioner, principal, and coordinator of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) for the Sheboygan Area School District in Sheboygan, Wisconsin. He represented his state for more than 23 years on the NAFEPA Board of Directors. His vision created this scholarship program and organized the first fund-raisers to support scholarships. Mr. Pfaff continues to serve NAFEPA on the Board, and provides assistance to local school districts as they implement federal education programs.

Iva McCants served as the first treasurer of NAFEPA and established the redesigned fiscal procedures as well as the original scholarship fund. She had a career span that included 30 years in the schools of Jackson, Mississippi where she served as a high school and elementary teacher, elementary supervisor, and director of state and federal programs. Ms. McCants became associated with NAFEPA as a member of the Mississippi affiliate (MAFEPD), where she served as president and then represented her state on the NAFEPA Board of Directors. She was appointed by the Board to serve as the NAFEPA treasurer and was elected to that position for two terms. Ms. McCants continues to serve under-privileged children by working with school reform in seven Mississippi Delta districts, where her commitment helps children realize their dreams for the future.
